Dr. Sofa

897 E. 134th St. (Locust & Walnut Aves.)

You know how you can take Mr. Potato apart and put him back together again? Dr. Sofa kind of does the same thing, with couches. Moving into a new apartment can be traumatic enough without finding out once you've reached that sixth flight that your sofa just won't fit. Dr. Sofa will show up at any time of day or night to break down that La-Z-Boy or loveseat and reassemble it once it's through the door. After moving over 1,000 couches for their customers, Dr. Sofa has even started making their own, presumably easy-to-move, furniture. Beyond their famed emergency surgery, the doctors offer upholstery cleaning, furniture restoration, and custom crating should you have to pack up and move all over again.
